SILVER CHAIN'S KELMSCOTT WOUND CLINIC MOVES TO MADDINGTON TO OFFER MORE

This Friday, November 25 2011, Silver Chain will be relocating their Kelmscott Wound Care Clinic and Continence Management and Advice Service (CMAS) clinic, to Maddington.

Ms Sue Linton, Silver Chain Clinical Nurse Consultant Manager, notes that the organisation is committed to providing ongoing care to our clients in a clinic environment and the relocation will allow for this.

“To be able to further develop and expand our capability to provide quality wound care and continence management advice services, we are relocating to Silver Chain’s Maddington Service Centre. This will place us in a better position to offer a service to clients both south and north of Maddington, from a fully equipped facility, and will allow for increased staff numbers,” said Ms Linton.

The new centre, located at 1938 Albany Highway, Maddington will open to the public on 26 November 2011.
